Brief details of claim

A claim for copyright infringement and passing off, together with a claim for a declaration that all copyright in certain Works (as defined in the Particulars of Claim) belong to the Claimant and other remedies for breach of implied terms of the agreement between the Claimant and the First Defendant.

The Claimant seeks an injunction against further reproduction of the Works, an inquiry into damages or an account of profits (at the Claimant's election), further damages under the Enforcement Directive, Additional damages under s.97 of the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988, costs and further remedies.

Value

Pending disclosure it is not possible to assess the value but it is believed to be less than £500,000. If the Claimant elects following disclosure of the profits and turnover of the Defendants to elect for damages it undertakes to pay the appropriate court fee

You must indicate your preferred County Court Hearing Centre for hearings here (see notes for guidance)
